

Numerous independent and divergent media sources, each with a different focus and each presenting contrasting ideas and opinions is the cornerstone of democracy. The antithesis of democracy is a homogenized presentation of information, which becomes insidious if that information can be controlled by a small group. Please support democracy and DO NOT LIFT THE BAN ON MEDIA CROSS OWNERSHIP.